

The Salem R-80 School District has received individual MAP and EOC testing results from the 2021-2022 school year. Results will be distributed in October during Parent-Teacher Conferences. Parents who wish to have their child's results prior to October can contact their school directly when school resumes.