Characteristics for Success

When determining if enrollment in a virtual course is the best educational decision for a student, the student and parent might consider the following information. Please check yes or no for each skill.

Skill	Yes	No
The student has demonstrated time-management skills that indicate the student is capable of submitting and completing course requirements without reminder.
The student has demonstrated persistence in overcoming obstacles and willingness to seek assistance when needed.
The student has demonstrated verbal or written communication skills that would allow the student to succeed in an environment where the instructor may not provide nonverbal cues to support the student's understanding.
The student has the necessary computer or technical skills to succeed in a virtual course.
The student has access to technology resources to participate in a virtual course.
The student has previously taken a virtual course and has been successful.

What are your plans after high school? (High School Students Only – All Others Leave Blank)
