

SALEM HIGH SCHOOL
Student Announcements
December 7, 2021

This week is Career Week. There will be different activities each day to make students aware of different careers. Today, your 1st hour teacher will be giving you a BINGO card. Please follow the directions and hand it in to the counselors' office by the end of the day on Thursday. Winners will be announced on Friday. Your teacher will make you aware of the other activities.

For those interested or wanting to change schedules for the second semester, please make an appointment with your counselor Mr Taylor (last names A-L) or Mrs Jadwin (last names M-Z). Schedule changes will not be done after Christmas Break.

For those looking for more information or want to switch to virtual for the second semester, Mr Taylor will be scheduling an orientation for December 9 and 10. Please have your parents or guardians call to schedule with Mr Taylor for those days.

Juniors - Sign up to help with basketball concessions is now outside Mrs. Taylor's classroom. We need two students to work at each game. Remember if you work 5 concessions, you will earn two free prom tickets.

If you are a senior and are interested in a fulltime job working with electricity with paid benefits Sign up in the office in order to receive more information.

Mrs. Taylor and Mr. Gray will be doing ACT prep after school this week today will be Math, Wednesday-English, Thursday-Reading, Friday-Science. Sign-ups will be outside Mr. Gray's room.

The yearbook staff is sponsoring the 2021 December Door Decorating Contest. Have your strive time give your door a little holiday cheer. You will have from now until December 16th to decorate. The winner will be announced on December, 17th at the Mr. SHS assembly. The winning strive time will earn a hot chocolate and cookie party.

Today is the ABSOLUTE LAST DAY to sign up to compete at Districts for FBLA. Please see Mrs. Pryor THIS MORNING if you plan to participate."
